LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1882.

NO. 18.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

General Steneman Nominated for Governor.

The Fourteenth Ballot Tells the Story—Canvassing the Railroad Commissionership.

Associated Press Dispatches.

SAN JOSE, June 23.—The Convention was called to order at nine o'clock. A resolution assessing two dollars upon each delegate was adopted.

EIGHTH BALLOT.

The roll was called for the eighth ballot. Alameda voted 19 for Steneman and 1 for Hearst. In Fresno Hearst gained 2. Hearst got 3 votes in Los Angeles. Nevada voted solid for Hearst again. The San Francisco delegation voted: Hearst 79, Taylor 4, Steneman 9, Johnson 13, Berry 11. The ballot resulted: Hearst 131, Steneman 182, Taylor 84, Johnson 54, Berry 25.

NINTH BALLOT.

Hearst 166, Steneman 133, Johnson 44, Taylor 91, Berry 19.

TENTH BALLOT.

Hearst 169, Steneman 149, Johnson 32, Taylor 93, Berry 11, Murphy 2. Great cheering hailed the announcement of 149 for Steneman. Hearst, on the tenth ballot, gained one in Alameda and two in Mariposa. Taylor gained two in Monterey. Hearst lost one in Nevada. San Francisco voted on the tenth ballot: 80 for Hearst, 9 for Johnson, 8 for Taylor, 7 for Steneman, 2 for Berry and 1 for Murphy. Steneman gained two and Hearst lost one in San Luis Obispo.

ELEVENTH BALLOT.

Hearst 170, Steneman 166, Johnson 28, Taylor 92, Berry 1, Archer 1.

TWELFTH BALLOT.

Hearst 174, Steneman 189, Taylor 75, Johnson 13. Enthusiastic cheering and confusion followed the announcement of 189 votes for Steneman. Craig, of Yolo, moved to take recess until 1:30 p. m. The motion provoked wild cries of no. Roll call was demanded and proceeded with. The vote on recess stood ayes 237, noes 212.

THIRTEENTH BALLOT.

According to all reports it is settled that Steneman will be nominated. John Wise and several other San Francisco delegates are going to Steneman on the next ballot. Taylor cannot hold his men, and the Hearst forces are broken. A desperate effort is making to rally the Hearst men for Taylor.

FOURTEENTH BALLOT.

The Chairman ordered roll call in the thirteenth ballot on progressing vote. Alameda voted 18 for Steneman and 2 for Hearst. In Contra Costa Hearst lost 2 votes, and in San Diego gained 1. San Francisco voted 81 for Hearst, 19 for Steneman, 4 for Johnson, 4 for Taylor. Hearst men are holding their own, but expected.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

SAN JOSE, June 23.—During the evening the First and Third District Delegation met to consider the nominations for Railroad Commissioners.

The First District was canvassed by a row between Cravens, of Sacramento, and Findley, of El Dorado. George J. Carpenter, of El Dorado, Will S. Green, of Colusa, Wm. M. Crutcher, of Placer, and H. M. Larue, of Sacramento, were placed in nomination. The first ballot resulted as follows: Carpenter 67, Green 36, Larue 37, Crutcher 23. After the third ballot Crutcher was withdrawn. The fifth ballot stood: Carpenter 66, Green 31, Larue 70. The meeting then adjourned till this evening.

The Third District delegation also had a squabble, the principals being White, of Los Angeles, and Leach, of San Diego, the subject of discussion being railroad influence. The meeting adjourned to this evening without making any nominations.

The Second and Third Congressional delegations met and organized, but made no nominations.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Democrats Caucusing on the Internal Revenue Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The Democratic caucus to-night on the question of party action on the internal revenue bill was of no practical benefit to the party. There was apparently too much division of opinion in the Democratic ranks. A fight may be made to secure the adoption of certain amendments to the bill so as to make campaign material. The bill will secure Democratic votes enough to pass it by a good majority.

THE SENATE PASSES THE BANKING BILL.

The Senate proceeded to dispose of the amendments to the Banking bill without debate. The pending proposition offered by Morgan was rejected—19 to 28—the party vote, except that of Jones (Nev.) who voted aye, and the Democrats of Hamilton who voted no with the Republicans. Davis (Ill.) voted no. Vest's substitute directing the issue of treasury notes in exchange for National Bank currency, and for forbidding the creation of new National Banks, was voted down—17 to 31. The bill was then reported to the Senate and passed—aye 34, nays 13.

DEBATING INTERNAL REVENUE REDUCTION.

The House, in Committee of the Whole, devoted the entire day to general debate on the bill to reduce internal revenue taxation. More than a dozen speeches were made by its many members. But little general interest was manifested. Most of the members have already made up their minds how they will vote on the different propositions involved in the bill and other propositions which it is proposed to add.

SENATE VOTE ON THE BANKING BILL.

The vote on the Banking bill stood: Yeas—Aldrich, Allison, Blair, Call, Chittenden, Conger, Davis, (W. Va.), Dawes, Ferry, Frye, Gorman, Groome, Hampton, Harrison, Hawley, Hill, (Cal.), Hoar, Jones, (Ga.), Lapham, Logan, McMillan, Mahone, Miller, (Cal.), Miller, (Ky.), Morgan, Merrill, Ransom, Rollins, Saunders, Sawyer, SEWELL, SHERMAN, VAN WYCK, WINDOM.

—34. Nays—Brown, Cockrell, Code, Walker, George, Grove, Jones, (Nev.), Mackey, Vance, Voorhees, Walker, Williams—13. Many pairs were announced by Senators with absentees.

MARKET REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—Barley is demoralized. No. 1 feed, June new, $1.25 bid, $1.31 asked; No. 2 feed, new, $1.24 bid; Oats going down, new, $1.74 asked; No. 2 June, $1.47 bid, $1.63 asked.

THE ROGERS' CREW.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—The U. S. revenue cutter Corwin arrived here today from Sitka. She brought the crew of the steamer Rodgers, and proceeded at once to Mare Island.

KILLED BY COWBOYS.

CALDWELL, Kansas, June 23.—City Marshal Geo. Brown was shot and instantly killed while trying to arrest two turbulent cowboys. The murderers escaped toward the Indian Territory pursued by a posse of citizens.

DESTRUCTIVE WIND STORM.

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, June 23.—A very destructive wind storm visited this place this afternoon. The railroad depot buildings were destroyed, and in the city a large number of residences and business houses were unroofed and some demolished. A circus tent was also demolished. Three men are reported killed.

ANOTHER FURIOUS STORM.

PAOLA, Kan., June 23.—Last night another tremendous rain and wind storm occurred along the Missouri and Kansas borders for 150 miles. Three men or more were drowned in the swollen streams. The whole country is flooded, and work in the harvest fields of Western Missouri and Eastern Kansas is completely suspended. It is rumored that a good deal of wheat has been injured in the bottoms.

GENERAL STONEMAN.

From the prominence circumstances and native merit have given this gentleman, our fellow citizen and neighbor, a memorandum of his army career becomes of interest. It is from Hamner's Register of the United States Army. It has been brought out in reply to the assertion that the General gives the following items of his history:

"George Stoneman, born in New York, appointed to West Point from New York; Brevet Second Lieutenant First Dragoons, 1st July, 1846; Second Lieutenant First Dragoons (on duty in California), 12th July, 1847; Captain Second Cavalry, 3d March, 1855; Major First Cavalry, 9th May, 1861; Brigadier-General Volunteers, 13th August, 1861; Major-General Volunteers, 29th November, 1862; Brevet Colonel (regular army), 18th December, 1862, for gallant and meritorious services in the battle of Fredericksburg; Lieutenant-Colonel Third Cavalry 30th March, 1864; Brevet Brigadier-General, 13th March, 1865, for gallant and meritorious services in the capture of Charlotte, North Carolina; Brevet Major-General, 13th March, 1865, for gallant and meritorious services in the field during the war; Colonel Twenty-first Infantry, 28th July, 1866, with which regiment he returned to California; mustered out of the volunteer service 1st September, 1866; retired, August 16, 1871.

The above closes the General's military history. Since that date he has mainly resided upon his beautiful place amid the orange groves of San Gabriel, filling, meantime, the office of U. S. Indian Commissioner and that of Railroad Commissioner. He has been in all the years we have known him, a Democrat, and of course an enemy of the Republican party. During the terrible business and financial depression which followed the failure of Temple & Workman's Bank, and the partial drought of '77—a depression which was charged upon the partially finished Southern Pacific Railroad,—General Stoneman so far put himself in sympathy with the Kearney-Workman organization as to secure his election as Railroad Commissioner at its hands. But the election resulted in no advantage to the State, or to the people, save the benefit the General has derived from his salary, for either through his want of management or the mulish stubbornness of the Board of which he was a member, his election was barren of any good results. The burdens he was elected to lift from the people's shoulders still rest there.

The Democratic State Convention has nominated General Stoneman for Governor. We congratulate them for being in possession of a candidate with whom the Republicans can affiliate in pleasant social intercourse. We congratulate him upon attaining to all the honors attached to the nomination, and tender him thus early our sympathies over his assured defeat.

RECEPTION OF THE NEWS.

The reception of the news of the nomination of General Stoneman was most decidedly mixed. But few manifested anything like enthusiasm. We heard of one man running after a gun for a salute, but the gun did not fire. One cause for the lack of enthusiasm was probably in the belief that the nomination of General Stoneman would shelve both Messrs. Sepulveda and Lynch. These gentlemen have a good local standing, and their friends, under the supposition that they had both been retired, felt gloomy. Our Republican friends were calm or indifferent, generally considering with us that the division in the Convention over the platform had killed the nominee, whoever he might be. The employees of the monopolies—a quite numerous force—thought they could live through it, and were willing to abide the arbitration of the ballot-box. On the whole, the reception of the news was rather indifferent.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic Convention had an exciting session yesterday. The opposing forces were hot at work and put in their best looks. The result, though different from our repeated conjectures of weeks ago, was in keeping with the more hopeful view we took of General Stoneman's case at the close of the second ballot, and as announced by us yesterday morning. As the convention adjourned so late, the Governor was nominated, we must wait another day for the other and interesting nominations.

A DIVIDED HOUSE.

Eleven of the Los Angeles delegation voted against the suicidal plank in the Democratic platform. How can any sane man expect a party to win with such a division in its ranks? Judge Holloway, of Downey, told the Convention that the platform with the anti-Sunday and anti-laborer's plank in it would split the party in two. It has done it.

SUNDAY LAW.

Please see next page for the remarks of the Democratic delegates on the Sunday Law plank in the platform of the Convention. It is good reading, and let it be remembered that it is said by Democrats, and not by Republicans.

SOME of our Democratic exchanges seem to be troubled in their minds as to what the Republican party is going to do, and are given to a vast deal of speculation on the subject. There is no occasion for so much hypothesis. The Republican party has been in the habit, for twenty years, of bravely taking up the banner of the Right, and carrying it to victory. The habit is not going to be suddenly broken off. Ohio State Journal.

LABORER'S READ!

"There is no workingman in California who can fail to see in the principles set forth at San Jose the simple statement of his needs, and a promise on which reason teaches him he may implicitly rely."

Thereabove we take from our esteemed Democratic contemporary, the Herald. Replying thereto we would say: The Democratic Conventions at San Jose and at Los Angeles did two things affecting the welfare of the laboring classes. The latter convention reiterated its "unflinching antagonism" to the corporations that give employment directly to hundreds of our laborers, and indirectly to thousands. Corporations without which the products of our farms would not be worth the gathering. Employment is sought from these corporations by hundreds in excess of their needs, and he is considered fortunate that secures a situation. How then is the interests of the laborer to be subserved by denouncing and antagonizing the sources of their support? The San Jose Convention gave a pledge in its platform to labor for the repeal of the Sunday law, thus making all days alike, and compelling the poor workman to do seven days' work for six days' pay! There is no religion or fanaticism in this way of stating the case. It is a question between the muscle and brawn of the country struggling for bread, and the rapacity of capital. The Democracy has sided with the oppressor and turned its back upon labor. And he who wrote the San Jose platform is and always has been a sympathizer with slavery and the antagonist of free labor. The present is no new departure for him. But he has mistaken the changes which have come over the land since slavery was wiped out. True he will find party organs like our esteemed Democratic neighbor, the Herald, to shout approval, but the honest, sober men of the masses will repudiate his doctrine and him, and vote to retain a law to give the laborer a day of rest on the blessed Sabbath.

MOKE DEMOCRATIC RASCALITY.

So well did the Democracy succeed in winning votes through the Morcy letter swindle, that they have attempted another and similar raid upon the Republican lines. We learn from Washington that a pamphlet has been issued by the Democratic Congressional Committee containing the most villainous distortions of history. The Morcy letter is again displayed, carefully concealing the exposure made by the Herald. The extracts made from Democratic speeches are those which are best calculated to make the poor laborer believe that the Democratic party is his friend and protector, and the Republican party his enemy. Quotations from Republican speeches are made so as to convey a wrong impression. They are torn from their connections and do not fairly represent the facts. The Democratic Committee are having the pamphlet printed in large numbers for use among the laboring classes.

We put the public on guard against this new infamy. Let the outrage and insult be resented by every honest man.

THE EDITOR.

Concurring in the sentiments below, from the pen of editor Grady, of Georgia, we decline running for Congress. We think his views are correct, and when all conductors of newspapers live his suggestion, we shall have purer and more honest journals. Hear what he says:

"The man who uses his journal to subvert his political ambition or writes with a sinister and personal purpose soon loses his power, and had best abandon the profession he has betrayed. Within my memory there are frequent and striking examples of men who have sacrificed the one profession only to be sacrificed in the other. History has not recorded the name of a single man who has been great enough to succeed in both."

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. B. Moffit, of San Fernando, was in town yesterday on business connected with the Order of Chess Friends.

J. A. Whitmore, editor of the Tucson Citizen, leaves for home this morning. He expresses himself highly delighted with his visit here.

Miss Minnie Mohr passed an examination before the County Board of Examiners which is seldom exceeded in excellence, and yesterday received the highest grade certificate attainable from that board.

Mrs. J. Houghan and Miss Annie Haskell of Denver will arrive in this city this morning. Mrs. Houghan spent a portion of last winter here and now returns to enjoy our balmy climate. Miss Haskell is on a visit to the Misses Walker.

Hazel Kirke.

Hazel Kirke continues to draw good houses, as it deserves. The house was filled last night again by an appreciative audience. They will give a matinee this afternoon at two o'clock, and those who cannot attend in the evening should embrace this opportunity. Their engagements will close with this evening's performance.

An Alarm of Fire.

A bale of hay was observed burning yesterday afternoon in the yard back of the bakery on the corner of First and Spring streets. An alarm was sounded by Confidence and Park Hose Companies. The fire was extinguished before the companies could do much. It is not known how the fire started.

Shooting.

Last evening about ten o'clock an excited individual ran into the police station saying a shooting scrape had just taken place at an Italian hotel on Alameda street, and wanted to have a policeman there immediately. Officer McMahon was dispatched to the scene but could not find there who did the shooting.

SAN JOSE CONVENTION.

Analysis of the Ballot which Nominated Stoneman.

The scene when the Result was Announced—Worrying the Defeated Candidates—Stoneman's Speech.

SAN JOSE, June 23.—The fourteenth ballot was as follows: Stoneman 243, Hearst 170, Taylor 32, Johnson 1. Those who broke for Stoneman were one-half of the Amador delegation, one from Los Angeles, the whole Mono delegation, two from Mendocino, two from Placer, seven from Sacramento, one from San Benito, two from San Diego, ten from San Francisco, three from Santa Clara, two from Solano, two from Sonoma, two from Stanislaus, one from Trinity and one from Yolo.

ANNOUNCING THE BALLOT.

The scene was grand and inspiring when the Chair announced the result. Banners were waved, hats flung in the air, and three times three cheers given for the nominee amid excitement. There were cries for people in the gallery to sit down. Bishop brought the San Francisco banner to the stage and in behalf of the delegation which had stood by Hearst through thick and thin, he moved to make the nomination unanimous. Flournoy made a vigorous speech, saying George Hearst left the convention with a warm Democratic heart, feeling no chagrin at the will of the convention. General Stoneman was declared the unanimous nominee. Wild enthusiasm had gripped the audience. The gallery was densely packed and also the space beneath it. It seems that the weight is swaying it. The Chair orders the gallery to remain in their seats and preserve order.

After the tenth ballot Griffith, of Fresno, withdrew Barry, saying he would vote for Stoneman. Great applause.

THE CANDIDATES BEFORE THE CONVENTION.

After the nomination of Stoneman the several candidates for Governor were called upon for speeches. Taylor first appeared and spoke briefly, pleading his hearty support to the nominee of the Convention. George Hearst followed. He reiterated his assertion on being placed in nomination, that he would be no sorcerer. He thought that the party would have to fight corporations in the coming campaign and wished he were richer that he might be able to contribute more largely to the size of the war. He would be found in the field as brave as if he had not been defeated. If other Democrats will do as much, they can carry the State by 15,000 majority.

Stoneman was then called to the platform by Col. Flournoy, Judge Terry and Judge Ball, and spoke as follows: "Fellow citizens and members of the Convention. I am no more, and not as much capable as my friends who have just addressed you. I say friend, because although we have been engaged for months past in concentrating our forces, yet there has been no bloodshed. I don't intend to make a speech. My experience in life is that four politicians out of five ruin themselves by talking and writing. As examples, the great Winfield Scott and the great General Winfield Scott Hancock; both ruined themselves by writing a letter. The great General Grant made himself by doing nothing. (Laughter.) Now, I don't quote General Grant as an example to be followed in all things, but I think his example is a very good one to follow in this case. I have nothing further to say in regard to myself than this, I have made a record—I hope I have—during my past life. I have no other security to offer in the future than this record in the past. I have made no pledges, no promises, and have been engaged in no entangling alliances. I beg pardon. I did make a promise to an intimate friend that if he got in San Quentin and I was there, I would pardon him out. (Cries of name.) I have met with defeat often; I hope I can say that I have met with victory, and often, during my past life; but there is no victory for me in this. I have met with defeat often; I hope I can say that I have met with victory, and often, during my past life; but there is no victory for me in this. I have met with defeat often; I hope I can say that I have met with victory, and often, during my past life; but there is no victory for me in this."

Little Jimmy Green, a pet of the party, yesterday to the charges of petty larceny and malicious mischief for breaking into a fruit stand last Tuesday night on Commercial street, and was sentenced to twenty-four days in the city jail without labor. As Judge Adams pronounced the sentence, the little fellow, scarcely twelve years old, said, "I hope the crime would be bigger, as I want to go to the State prison." This is a strong argument for a Reform School.

THE COURTS.

RECEIVED COURT—HOWARD, J. Mills vs. Mitchell—Judgment ordered for plaintiff, on disclaimer.

CYPRUS GRAY and LOUISA FAIRMAN, Final discharge of debtors granted.

CITY COURT—ADAMS, J. Antonio Morales was sentenced to the chain gang for fifteen days for disturbing the peace.

James Green, for petit larceny, was sentenced to the city jail for twelve days without labor. On a second charge of malicious mischief he received another sentence of twelve days.

Charles Anderson was sentenced to the chain gang for twenty-four days for malicious mischief and petit larceny.

Henry Anderson, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was held to answer under $250 bail.

HE WANTED MORE.

J. H. SEYMOUR.

Our apartment is complete, and we can fill any sized order, from five cents to a thousand dollars, upon the shortest notice.

Our country customers, who live at a distance, can send in their orders to be filled and shipped by rail, and they will be dealt with as fairly and honestly as though the goods were passed to them over the counter.

The name CRANCE STORE, has become household words in every home in and tributary to this city, and we are happy to find that nearly all our oldest customers, who began trading with us years ago, have ever continued and are still dealing with us.

Our strong point, however, lies in the fact that our goods are CHOICE, and that we will not carry inferior second class goods, which are hardly necessary in the case of our old customers, because we know that they will come; therefore, it will apply more particularly to those who have never dealt with us. Look us up as we can sell you something we will give you something; you need not do any empty-handed.

NEAR AND YE SHALL FIND the choicest groceries, from a South Sea Herring to a choicest of New Orleans Molasses, at the CRANCE STORE, 133 Main St., Los Angeles.
